First Decision to Earn Your Ideal Income in 2017: Distinguish your dreams, purpose and vision.

I have heard it said that “Vision is the impulse pulling us to determine who and what we are capable of; it’s the divine adventure into self-discovery where our greatest attributes are activated.”

What are your life dreams? Have you ever thought about it? When was the last time you laid in bed and said, “God, what are the dreams you have for my life? What do you desire living through me?”

In general, your dreams fit into the following categories:

1. What you would like to have or own.
2. What you would like to do or experience.
3. Where you would like to go or travel.
4. Who you would like to be or become.
5. What you would like to contribute.

Life Wheel

Directions: The eight sections in the wheel represent the eight major areas of your life. Seeing the center of the wheel as 0 and the outer edge as 10, rank your level of satisfaction with each area of your life by drawing a curved line within the section (see example.) The new perimeter of the circle represents how balanced your life is. If this were a real wheel, how bumpy would the ride be?

Once you have completed the graph, look at the areas that need work and choose three action steps for each area to start changing your old habits and creating new more empowering habits. Good luck!
